KTH Exchange Fair October 3, 2012

We are delighted to see your interest in the KTH Exchange Fair!

The main objective of the fair is to promote our partner universities to our students and to encourage them to take part of international mobility. We are also looking forward to deepen the relation between our institutions. As a participant, you will be able to promote your university, learn more about KTH and meet with staff that might be of interest to you.
